Gifford Medical Center

44 South Main Street
Randolph, VT 05060

Gifford is a community hospital in Randolph, Vt., with family health centers in Berlin, Bethel, Chelsea, and Rochester, and specialty services throughout central Vermont. A Federally Qualified Health Center and a Top 100 Critical Access Hospital in the country, Gifford is a full-service hospital with a 24-hour emergency department; inpatient and rehabilitation units; many surgical services; an accredited cancer program; a day care; two adult day programs; and the award-winning, 30-bed Menig Nursing Home. The Birthing Center, established in 1977, was the first in Vermont to offer an alternative to traditional hospital-based deliveries, and continues to be a leader in midwifery and family-centered care. The cancer program is accredited by the Commission on Cancer of the American College of Surgeons. Our mission is to improve individuals' and community health by providing and assuring access to affordable, high-quality health care in Gifford's service area.
