

Vermont State Hospital Mission, Vision, Values Statement

Mission: The Vermont State Hospital provides excellent care and treatment in a safe, respectful environment in order to promote hope and quality of life for the individual with mental illness.

Vision: The Vermont State Hospital will be a Center for Excellence in the provision of mental health treatment, education and research in collaboration with the community and the people it serves.

Value: The Vermont State Hospital respects the person and their life goals, recognizes the individual's rights and responsibilities toward the attainment of those goals.

Believes in the individual's ability to recover from life crisis

Provides an environment which fosters growth and change through the provision of knowledge based treatment

Supports a culture where research, education, and training enhance professional competence.